

Dear friends,

We are grateful for every dollar and in kind donation. Please see our tax deductible option with our partners From the Heart Productions, LLC

The script, by Cat Dale, is based on the best selling book The Story of Mary MacLane, written by Mary MacLane of Butte, Montana 1901. Originally from Canada, her family moved to 419 N. Excelsior Street where she documented her teen angst and the diversity of the biggest city west of the Mississippi! She was a household name for decades influencing Earnest Hemingway and Gertrude Stein as well as being named "the first flapper". Mary was a filmmaker and the first to break the fourth wall. Contemporary series like Fleabag and Dickinson are loosely based on her work and confessionalist style. As a dark comedy/revisionist western, Copper Horizon is the origin story of a forgotten mind too vast for the world in which she was born—until now.

Thank you so much for considering,

Suzanne Shope, Ed.D.
